$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

NOR

contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "booze."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates and invigorates stomach, liver and bowels, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood and tones up the system generally.

"Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, exhausting drains, painful periods and kindred ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means selfishness on the part of the dealer who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and we were advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. C. Fox, of 57 E. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then you advised us to get the 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took four bottles of the 'Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and you never saw such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every one. I advise parents who have young daughters who suffer from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Used the Birch.

According to a correspondent of the Paris Temps a Russian, who did not belong to the official class, but who spoke with a profound accent of sincerity, recounted to him that the St. Petersburg police, with the object of establishing the existence of a revolutionary plot, which, however, was purely fictitious, had made free use of the birch in order to force imaginary confessions from their prisoners and from wounded men and women who were being treated in hospitals, and this in spite of the fact that the practice of corporal punishment and torture had been legally abolished by the Czar.

One girl, a student, who had had her breast partially severed by a Cossack's saber, was taken away from the hospital before she was half cured and questioned as to her connection with an anarchist organization by a commissary of the police. Her replies being unsatisfactory, she was stripped and flogged with a birch on the lower part of the back until sheer agony forced her to declare anything her torturers wished. She was then returned to the hospital, where it was necessary to place her on an elastic bed, so dreadfully had she been trashed. A student of the Technological Institute was similarly whipped and then sent home in a dying condition.

The preposterous stories as to the amount of money forwarded from England and Japan, told by rioters, were all extracted from the victims of the police under the above circumstances.

The same Russian informant of the Temps stated that he visited fifteen out of the forty-six hospitals in St. Petersburg in search of missing relatives, and counted 2,195 dead, which would prove that the grand total of deaths was very different from 96, which the authorities confessed to.

Brutal Practical Joke.

Half a score of sailors who work along the Hoboken waterfront were arrested for a brutal practical joke that probably will result in the death of John Hanson, a young man who has been hanging around the saloons of River street for the past week.

Hanson was asleep in a saloon when several men entered the place. They were all more or less intoxicated and began throwing things at the sleeping man. He did not wake, and one of them suggested that alcohol be poured on his head and set ablaze.

A bottle of the spirits was obtained and the man's head was saturated. A match was applied and the inflammable liquid blazed up. Shrieking with pain the man jumped up and rushed out of the place. The flaming alcohol had run down into his ears and on the back of his neck.

He dashed across the street and rolled himself in a snowbank. At first the drunken sailors roared with laughter at his agony, but when they saw his clothing catch fire and heard his cries of agony they fled in all directions.

When the police arrived the man lay unconscious on a snowdrift. His hair was burned completely off and his features had almost been erased by the flame. His eyes had also been burned, and if there were any chance of his recovery he would be totally blind.

Hanson was hurried to St. Mary's Hospital, where the surgeons say it is a question of hours before his sufferings will be over. He recovered consciousness long enough to make an antemortem statement, on the strength of which the arrests were made.

Offered Herself a Sacrifice.

Miss Frances Wakeley, 23 years old of Chicago crazed by study of the teachings of Baha Ullah, yesterday offered herself a living sacrifice, and, heaping all her loved possessions, all her art needlework, the keepsakes of her childhood, as a pyre around her, she poured kerosene over them and burned herself to death in her home.

For weeks the girl, her mind weakened by the study of the mystic cult, revealed, according to its followers, by the revelations to Baha-Ullah and to Bab, had planned the sacrifice.

She told those who knew her that she met Christ at meetings of the cult, and she had talked with a "Divine Spirit." She was commanded to sacrifice everything, she declared, and her broken mind filled with this idea, led her to the frantic deed.

The girl's death revealed a terrible condition of poverty and suffering—a condition not dreamed of among the society women of Englewood and Woodlawn, for whom the girl did beautiful embroidery and art needlework. The mother ignorant still of her daughter's death, is paralyzed and helpless, unable to move and scarcely able to speak a word.

The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S. Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 10, 1905.

THE CURTAIN fell at an early hour this morning upon the last act in the tragic history of J. Samuel McCue, who on the 4th of last September murdered his wife in Charlottesville. He is now before a Judge from whose decision there can be no appeal and to whom all things are open and bare. This case forms one of the most interesting in the calendar of crime, and has been studied by thousands throughout the land during the past four months; hence the facts are fresh in the minds of all newspaper readers. They corroborate the oft-repeated observation, that "there is a skeleton in every household." The McCues had doubtless been supposed by many who passed and repassed their palatial home in the beautiful Albemarle city to be among the happiest, surrounded as they were by everything that could tend toward domestic comfort. But "Every heart knoweth its own sorrow." The McCues' wealth kept the wolf far away from their domicile, but phantoms more ghastly grinned and danced amid their scenes of worldly luxury. The husband and wife were not of one accord—they had jars and estrangements—the trail of the serpent was over everything—the domestic atmosphere was vitiated. The absence of sympathy between the ill-starred couple forced them to pass lives of deceit, and while mingling with the world, apparently in good humor with one another, fierce spirits doubtless struggled in each, until the climax was reached last September, when man and wife returned home from church through different streets. They had listened to the Gospel of Peace while other thoughts were occupying their minds, and, failing to profit by what they had heard, irritated wounds they had made but feeble attempts to heal, and the end was a tragedy. All husbands and wives who quarrel do not end their variances by murder. Occasionally some do, and the terrible scenes in Charlottesville on the 4th of last September and the last sad act in that place early this morning afford serious lessons to all. Sympathy, naturally, has gone out to the ill-used wife, who doubtless trod many paths that will never be known to the world. Patient and long-suffering, she struggled on until relieved of her burdens by the man who had taken her for better or worse and who had promised in the presence of God and man to cherish and honor her.

AS SOON as the public land fraud cases are cleared up in Oregon, where several more indictments of considerable importance are expected to be returned shortly, it is said that the government will devote attention to cases growing out of alleged land frauds of considerable extent in Washington, Montana and Wyoming. Many developments in these States bear some similarity to the transactions on which the efforts of the government have been concentrated for a long period in Oregon, and the present expectation is that another set of grafters will be brought to light. The public lands department of the government seems to be permeated with rascality.

IT IS STATED that Mr. Bascom Slemp, the new republican State chairman, will visit all parts of the State for the purpose of organizing republicans for the gubernatorial campaign and to see that all republicans pay their poll taxes. If the poll taxes are paid in this section of the State as it is reported they were paid last year in the Ninth, Mr. Slemp's district, some one may get himself in trouble in violating the election laws.

THE RAILROAD RATE BILL.

The bill to regulate railroad freight rates passsed the House yesterday afternoon by a vote of 326 to 17. Of these 17 votes cast against the bill, six were democrats and 11 were republicans. The handful of opposition came exclusively from the eastern States. Of the republicans, five of the 11 were from Pennsylvania. Of the democrats, four were from New York, one from New Jersey, and one from Pennsylvania. Th announcement that the bill has passed by this overwhelming vote was received by the House almost in absolute silence.

Today the bill will be sent to the Senate, and will be immediately referred to Mr. Elkins' committee on interstate commerce. It is significant of the bill's fate that the same committees will today discuss the resolution drawn by Senator Kean, of New Jersey, providing for a joint commission to sit during the coming recess and prepare a bill for passage by the next Congress. The present session of Congress adjourns in three weeks from tomorrow. The Swayne impeachment case is still taking up the time of the Senate day after day, and none of the great appropriation bills which will provoke controversy and prolonged debate in the Senate have yet been passed by that body. So that the railroad rate bill is completely at the mercy of half a dozen Senators, who may decide to fillibuster against it by indulging in debate on every bill that must yet come up before the session ends.

The law prohibiting Jews in Russia from acquiring property outside their zone has been repealed.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.

The President's new team of horses which he purchased a few weeks ago in Virginia ran away this morning at 17th street and Pennsylvania avenue while the driver, Julius Wheeler, was taking them into the stable from the White House. A big automobile turned the corner, very suddenly nearly running into the President's carriage, scarring the horses. They immediately started to run and dragged the carriage 200 feet down Pennsylvania avenve. The horse "Dion" landed on the iron palings of the War Department fence receiving a gash 12 inches in length. Wheeler, the driver was thrown to the sidewalk and sustained a very severe bruise of the right hip. The vehicle was not damaged. No one was in the carriage at the time.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon there will be a conference in the hall of the House of the republican members of that body to take up the question of statehood. The Senate amendments granting statehood to Oklahoma and Indian Territory jointly and to New Mexico singly will be discussed. The opposition to these is so strong that there is not the slightest hope that the conference will endorse them. A year ago the republicans in caucus, declared for the House bill granting statehood to Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one and New Mexico and Arizona as another State. The expectation is that today's conference will reaffirm that party declaration and that the House will stand out against the Senate. The plan of the republican leaders is to keep the amended statehood bill in the House committee on territories until assurances shall have been given that the Senate will recede. In the absence of such assurances, the measure will be allowed to die in the committee.

Judge Swayne, of Florida, for the first time made his appearance today in the U. S. Senate, which sat as a court of impeachment to try charges against him. He entered quietly and almost unobserved, accompanied by his counsel. The chamber was crowded. The Senate fixed the daily hours of trial from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. The impeachment trial started off without delay, and with an unexpectedly sensational turn, when Mr. Palmer, chairman of the managers on the part of the House, noted the absence of Major James H. Durkee, of Jacksonville. After reading a physician's statement furnishing excuse for Durkee's absence, Mr. Palmer declared that within a few days Durkee had been seen at his home town in good health. During the presentation of the case for the House, by Judge Palmer, a declaration by the Florida legislature was read. It charged Judge Swayne with being corrupt and ignorant.

The President today nominated Joseph Kibbey, of Arizona, to be Governor of Arizona, and Eugene A. Tucker, of Nebraska, to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona.

By a strict party vote the House committee on ways and means today ordered a favorable report on the bill reducing, in 150 instances, the tariff rates on goods going into the Philippines. The principal reduction is in the rates on machinery, engines, and steel rails. The democrats were unsuccessful in their efforts to have absolute free trade, as far as the Philippines are concerned, in rice, corn, wheat, oats, etc.

Senator Frye, of Maine, president pro tempore of the Senate, called at the White House this morning and left with Secretary Loeb one of the handsome mahogany boxes that were used to contain the electoral votes at the recent official count of the presidential election. "I want the President to have this box as a memento of the occasion" said Senator Frye.

After the Cabinet meeting today Secretaries Hay and Taft and Attorney General Moody remained with the President. It is believed that the suggested meditation of the United States in the Russo-Japanese war was one of the subjects discussed.

President Roosevelt today informed Delegate Rodey, of New Mexico, that he would not sign the statehood bill if it comes to him in the shape in which it passed the Senate.

The following changes in Ambassadors are announced as determined upon by the President. Ambassador McCormick, now at St. Petersburg, to go to Paris, succeeding Ambassador Porter; Ambassador Meyer, to be transferred from Rome, to St. Petersburg; Henry White, secretary of the Legation, at London, to go to Rome, as Ambassador; Minister Wilson, now at Chile, to go to Belgium.

Who Can Vote in Great Primary.

"Who can vote in the coming primary for State officers, United States senator and members of the general assembly?"

The approach of the primary to nominate the State ticket and local officers (including members of the legisiature) has begun to arouse interest and the question above is causing some discussion

The following is a digest of the election laws by one of the foremost lawyers of the State, a man who served in the constitutional convention:

All persons duly registered and having the qualifications of age and residence, provided—

The voter has personally paid, out of his own means, six months prior to the regular November election (before May 9, 1905) the State poll-tax for the year 1904.

Veterans of the war do not have to pay the capitation tax to vote, and any voter who comes of age on and after Feb. 1, 1905, and who has the qualifications for registering, does not have to pay the capitation tax for the year 1904 in order to permit him to vote.

All voters who registered before Jan. 1, 1904, are to be allowed to have assistance in the preparation of their ballots; those who have registered since that time (unless blind or armless) must prepare their own ballots.

The primary to nominate State officers will be held between Aug. 8 and Sept 9, as required by the law of the democratic party, and only those persons who are qualified to vote in the general election can vote in the primary. That is, unless the voter has paid his taxes on or before May 9 or this year, such voter will not be allowed to vote in the primary, as the first of those who have paid taxes will have to be filed with the clerk of the court, by the treasurers of counties and cities on or before June 9 (at least five months before the general election). That is a provision of the new constitution.

GENERAL ROSSER.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, the President yesterday sent to the Senate the nomination of Gen. Thomas L. Rosser to be postmaster at Charlottesville, thereby setting aside the recommendation of the patronage committee and making the appointment a purely personal one.

The other candidates for the position were the incumbent of the office, Postmaster W. G. Saltesman formerly of New York, who was appointed originally upon a recommendation of Represenative J. S. Sherman, of New York—and C. W. Hulfish, of Charlottesville. Mr. Saltesman was recommended by Mr. Slemp, the only republican Representative from Virginia, and by Representative Sherman. Mr. Hulfish was indorsed as the candidate of the patronage committee of the congressional district in which Charlottesville is located.

A peculiar phase of the case is that General Rosser, who is the personal selection of the President, also indorsed Postmaster Saltesman for reappointment and was very anxious to have the President appoint the latter. The President has known General Rosser for some time and admires him greatly. He has been desirous of giving him a federal appointment in Virginia, and when he suggested the Charlottesville postmastership to General Rosser the latter was averse to accepting, because he had indorsed Mr. Saltesman for reappointment. General Rosser has been desirous, it is said, of succeeding Asa Rogers as Collector for the Eastern District of Virginia. After a conference with Mr. Rogers it was intimated that the President preferred not to disturb his incumbency as Collector for the present, and that he was particularly desirous of following his original intention of appointing General Rosser postmaster at Charlottesville.

Colonel Slemp knew of the President's desire to make a personal appointment at Charlottesville and consented to stand aside, but several days ago General Rosser was quoted as having said he would not accept the postmastership even if he were appointed. Representative Sherman, of New York, who has been urging the candidacy of Postmaster Saltesman, knowing the President's general policy with respect to federal appointments in Virginia to be to follow the recommendations of the patronage committees recently selected for the 10 congressional districts of Virginia, urged the President not to follow this policy with respect to the Charlottesville position and asked him to investigate the merits of the respective candidates before forming a judgment.

The President frankly told Mr. Sherman that, aside from a few cases where he desired to make personal appointments the will of the patronage committees would be carried out unless conditions warranted independent action. The President was aware that General Rosser had said he would not accept the postmastership, but decided to send in the nomination anyhow.

General Rosser is a distinguished ex-Confederate soldier and retired civil engineer and lives on his splendid estate just outside of Charlottesville. He is in his sixty-ninth year and entered West Point in 1856. He was in the class of 1861, and when it was ordered into the army at the time that Fort Sumter was fired on he resigned and went to Montgomery, Ala., where he received an appointment as first lieutenant of artillery in the Confederate army. Soon afterward he became captain of Company D of the Washington Artillery, of New Orleans. He was severely wounded at Mechanicville, Va., in 1862, and was wounded in battle three other times during the war. He was promoted to a lieutenant-colonelcy of artillery and a few days later was made colonel of the Fifth Virginia Calvary in the brigade of J. E. B. Stuart. He became brigadier-general of calvary in 1863 and in the following year was made major-general of calvary. General Rosser served in all the campaigns of the Army of Northern Virginia and refused to surrender with Lee at Appomattox, but through the lines and escaped. While endeavoring to reorganize the scattered troops of the army after the surrender he was captured and made a prisoner of war. During the civil war General Rosser married Betty B. Winston, of Hanover county, Virginia. After the war he studied law, but did not enter the profession. He was one of the superintendents of the National Express Company under Gen. Joseph E. Johnston. He was chief engineer of the Northern and Canadian Pacific Railways from 1870 until 1886, when he retired to his estate in Virginia. He was appointed brigadier-general of United States volunteers in June, 1898, and commanded the Third Brigade of the Second Division of the First Army Corps in Cuba during the war with Spain, where he was thrown in contact frequently with Mr. Roosewelt, who was then a colonel of Rough Riders.

WAR IN THE EAST.

The Russian grand ducal party is reported to have reached the conclusion that the war with Japan should be terminated on the best terms obtainable.

The Russian court is said to be divided between partisns of Kuropatkin and Grippenberg, and the former general is reported to be suffering from a malady showing lack of will power

Vladivostok is practically blockaded by ice on one side and the Japanese navy watching the other route.

The immpression prevails in Tokio that the impending battle between the armies of Field Marshal Oyama and General Kuropatkin will occur before any material thaw takes place, which would convert the country into a slushy bog and render the movement of guns, ammunition and stores impossible until the roads harden.

That the Czar is not satisfied with General Kuropatkin's policy of conducting the campaign in Manchuria is apparent from the consideration of proposed changes. The latest report is that Grand Duke Nicholaiavitch will be sent to Manchuria, either to relieve Kuropatkin or assume the position of viceroy. If the latter, Kuropatkin will then have to report to him.

The Russian army organ estimates the strength of the Japanese army in Manchuria at 265,000 cavalry and infantry and 850 guns, which, it is claimed, is 50,000 less men than the Russian force.

The Russians have continued their bombardment in the direction of the Shakhe river since the night of February 7. They also continue intrenching in front of Liuchenpao and in the vicinity of Heikoutai.

McCUE HANGED.

J. Samuel McCue was hanged in Charlottesville at 7:36 this morning, for the murder of his wife, Fanny McCue, September 4, 1904. The condemned man confessed his crime. The news was received at this office a few minutes after the execution and was promptly bulletined.

The U. S. Supreme Court had refused to entertain an appeal from the State Court, and Governor Montague declined to interfere. This was the state of the case last night and all hope for the condemned man had vanished by midnight.

Despite the prisoner's oft-repeated assertions of confidence in his salvation and despite the fact that he said every day "brought him nearer to Jesus," it was obvious that the unhappy man did not wish to die. He had reached that normal animal state when he even preferred life imprisonment in the penitentiary to death on the gibbet. McCue said as much when he heard of the five-year sentence imposed on young Fishburn, the slayer of Dr. Lefew, at Roanoke. On that occasion he remarked, with a touch of pathos, that he wished his fate had been similar; that if he were sent to prison for life he would do all he could for the welfare of his fellow-convicts.

The casket in which the body was to be placed reached Charlottesville at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Waynesboro, accompanied by Undertaker C. W. Alexander, of that town.

The grounds upon which the Governor was asked to interfere were:

First—Circumstantial evidence should not be recognized to justify capital punishment.

Second—That in this particular case the evidence is insufficient to support a verdict of guilty.

Third—That premeditated and deliberate murder was not proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

"These questions," said Governor Montague last night, "not only belong to judicial determination, but have actually been disposed of by the lower court and twice approved by the Supreme Court of Appeals after exhaustive examination. I am unauthorized to reverse this procedure and these judgments."

In regard to the insanity plea the Governor said: "Nothing whatever has been presented to me tending to establish the insanity of McCue."

Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court last night denied an application for a writ of error in McCue's case. Justice Harlan based his denial on the ground that no federal question was presented in the application for the writ. His formal indorsement on the application was as follows: "The record presented to me discloses no ground whatever for a review of the judgment of the Supreme Court of Virginia by the Supreme Court of the United States. The application for a writ of error is, therefore, denied."

Counsel for McCue—Marvin Smithey, of Richmond—was at the Supreme Court early yesterday in his efforts to secure the writ, but as the court was not in session he was compelled to make application to an individual justice of the court. He then sought Chief Justice Fuller, and went to the latter's house at 3 o'clock. When he reached there he was informed that the Chief Justice was ill. Mr. Fuller referred Mr. Smithey to Justice Harlan. The ground of the application for the writ presented by McCue's counsel was that McCue did not have a fair trial, as guaranteed by the constitution.

Charlottesville, Va. February, 10.—J. Samuel McCue, former mayor of this city, expiated the crime of wife murder on the scaffold in the jail here this morning, after confessing his guilt. He refused the offer of assistance of the guards, walking erect and hurriedly to the scaffold. McCue left his cell, where he had spent a sleepless night, a few minutes after seven thirty o'clock this morning accompanied by his spiritual advisers. He kept his nerve to the last.

The drop fell at 7.36 and he was pronounced dead a 7.54.

The execution was without a hitch.

Immediately after the execution the ministers who had attended him, Rev. G. L. Percie, Rev. John B. Turpin and Rev. H. B. Lee, made this statement to the newspaper men:

"J. Samuel McCue requested us to make public his statement made to us just before he went to the scaffold that he did not wish to leave this world with suspicion resting on any human being other than himself; that he alone was responsible for the deed, impelled to it by an evil power beyond his control, and that he recognized his sentence as just."

McCue's last night was one of distress. He was extremely nervous and repeatedly asked for his children. Despite his earnest pleadings that he be allowed to have them with him during the night his relatives denied him this. His brother was with him for a short time in the early evening, and then during the long night the ministers who had been with him since yesterday prayed constantly with the murderer.

Early in the morning the twenty-five persons, mostly newspaper men and physicians, who were to witness the execution, were admitted to the prison. Outside were gathered several hundred people and despite the chilling air they stood at the main door looking constantly at the prison windows, scrutinizing with envy the few that were admitted, and in bated breath discussed the crime and the coming execution.

McCue's relatives, who had been given permission to view the execution, were not present. McCue was awake when the officers came in at seven thirty o'clock. While the death warrant was being read his hands were quickly bound behind him. Then the march to the scaffold began.

The sergeant of the guard offered assistance to the condemned man to steady his walk, but McCue motioned him aside and with firm steps hurried to his doom. Before him marched several guards. In the rear were the ministers, praying softly.

McCue mounted the scaffold, the noose was quickly adjusted and the black cap was placed over his head. He underwent the awful strain of the situation with remarkable courage. At a signal from the warden, at 7:36, the trap was sprung. The doctors present examined the body at frequent intervals and at 7:54 announced that McCue was dead. Those present as witnesses for the State to see that the execution of the condemned murderer was had according to the decree of the courts, then viewed the body and signed their report.

The body was taken down after the announcement of the doctors and immediately prepared for burial.

The autopsy showed that the neck was not broken by the fall and that death resulted from strangulation. The discoloration was very slight. The body was taken on an early train to Brookville, Aldermarle county, where it will be buried beside the father and mother of McCue on the old McCue homestead.

The confession satisfies the public mind and completely vindicates the judiciary and executive departments. The Governor's refusal to further interfere is being widely commended today.

Mrs. Fannie M. McCue, wife of J. Samuel McCue, former Mayor of Charlottesville, was murdered in their home in that city on Sunday evening, September 4, 1904.

McCue claimed that an intruder had entered their bedroom just after their return from church, and while they were preparing to retire.

Later, the wife was found beaten and shot to death in the bath tub. McCue offered a liberal reward.

A coroner's jury immediately began an inquisition. Before it concluded its work McCue was arrested, charged with the murder of his wife. The accused retained brilliant counsel. He was indicted at the September term of court, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The case was set for trial at the October term.

Great difficulty was experienced in getting a jury. Just 163 veniremen were summoned before twelve jurors were accepted. The cost for jurors and mileage was $1,856.09.

Hearing of testimony was begun October 25th. Instructions were offered and argued, the case elaborately argued and given to the jury before noon November 5th. In less than thirty minutes the jury reported a verdict of guilty. Motion to set aside the verdict was refused. An appeal was allowed the petition and record prepared and forwarded to the appellate court January 3, 1905. The court refused the writ of error.

Subsequently counsel for McCue filed a supplementary petition, urging the importance of the issue presented. The court, after due consideration, handed down an exhaustive written opinion, denying the writ and emphatically declaring the verdict a just and a justifiable one.

Since that time no further step had been taken until the announcement yesterday that Messrs. Machen and Moncure, of Alexandria, had arrived in the city and were preparing to appeal to to the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of error. Meanwhile the Governor was being flooded with letters and petitions urging clemency.

Shaffer Hanged.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—Augustus L. Shaffer was hanged at the jail of the District of Columbia at 12.07 o'clock today. He died game. An ingenious plan had been arranged for the springing of the trap. Two ropes led into a cell from which the scaffold could not be seen. Two guards were stationed in the cell, each clutching one of the ropes, only one of which, however, was attached to the trap. At a given signal each pulled his rope. Neither guard knows which rope released the trap. Shaffer, who was 39 years of age, killed his divorced wife, Catherine, aged 30, by slitting her throat with a razor, August 23, 1903. In 1900, Shaffer brought suit against his wife for divorce but failed to get it. Later his wife was granted a decree on the grounds of cruelty and infidelity. After that time Shaffer drank almost constantly and made known to his friends his jealousy. On the day of the murder Mrs. Shaffer left her home for a call on a neighbor. Shaffer stepped from the shadow of a tree and seized his wife, at the same time drawing a razor across her throat and almost decapitating her. The murderer made no attempt to escape. At the station house while being searched, Shaffer said to the desk sergeant, "I did it, and that's all there is to it."

Bride-Elect Elopes and Weds Another Man.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 10.—The marriage of Nettie E. Lattimer and Raymond W. Spruill did not occur in South Norfolk Wednesday night, for the reason that the bride-elect had eloped the night before with Herbert Drewry to South Mills, N. C., where they were married at midnight by a Justice of the Peace, who was called from his bed to perform the ceremony. Everything was in readiness for the Spruill-Lattimer ceremony, wedding invitations had been issued, the bride's outfit finished and the minister engaged. The elopers missed the train they meant to take, but eluded the girl's mother, and were married before the wedding could be stopped. Spruill, who is a lumber dealer, says he is surprised and hurt, but is glad that he did not marry a girl who had so little love for him. Miss Lattimer was formerly assistant postmistress at South Norfolk. She is 18 and the groom is 23. Spruill is 26.

Princess Louise.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—Your correspondent is authoritatively informed that the report of the conduct of the former Crown Prince Louise of Saxony, at Florence, are unfounded. The stories that she has been acting in a way to bring discredit on herself and her child born since she eloned with M. Giron, the French tutor have been circulated by the Saxony court for the purpose of discrediting the Princess. Her popularity is shown during her recent trip to Dresden in an attempt to see her children, has alarmed the government and the officials desire to counteract all influences in her favor. The truth is the former Princess has arranged to marry a young Italian noble, Count Parto Gicciardini shortly. After the wedding, Louise's baby daughter must, of necessity, be returned to Dresden.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Conditions More Serious.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 10.—The situation here is still uneasy and trade is paralyzed by the feeling of uncertainty which prevails everywhere. It is estimated that 30,000 additional workers went out on a strike yesterday. The men are bitter because they have not received the promised reforms promptly. There is a report current here which, however, has not been confirmed, that a number of men again went on strike at the Putloff works and killed an obnoxious foreman.

A strike is again on at the Putloff and Franco-Russian works. This morning a number of the employes of these firms, after a conference with the directors, went out owing to the refusal of the manufacturers to grant an eight hour day. The strikers marched in small groups through the city. Their demeanor is quiet. The movement is entirely an economic one and no disorders are feared.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—The Lokal Anzeiger reports that the casualties at Sosnovice, Poland, at the clash last night between strikers and troops were 15 killed and 34 wounded. The Vossiche Zeitung declares the losses were even heavier and that the casualties reached 150 persons killed and wounded.

London, Feb. 10.—The Warsaw correspondent of Reuters Telegram Company says that military at Sosnovice, Poland, fired three volleys into the strikers during the clash between troops and strikers last night. Over one hundred strikers were killed or wounded.

German Strikers.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—A portion of the strikers in the mining regions refused to accept the decision of the Essen conference yesterday, and did not return to work this morning. A party of extremists attacked strike leaders Sachse and Pue, who had recommended the termination of the strike and attempted to lynch them. Pue was seriously injured. The extremists are venting their indignation by various excesses. Among other things, they destroyed a portion of the railway near Essen, where the authorities are preparing to suppress formidable riots. Meetings were held at Steels, Rauxel, and Habinghurst at which resolutions have been passed in favor of a continuance of the strike. The colliers at Frintroh, Heisingen, Schalke, Osterfeld, Gelsen-Kirschen, Herten, Herne, Brucknausen, and Dortmund, are opposing these actions of the extremists, and have decided to accept the arrangements for the resumption of work.

Japanese Attack Repulsed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 10.—General Kuropatkin reports that two Japanese attacks of the Russian left have been repulsed. Five Russians were wounded.

It has been finally decided to build a second Siberian railway from Tomsk to Omsk. The work will be inaugurated in the spring. This project has long been contemplated, but heretofore whenever broached by the ministry of ways and communications, opposition has been raised on account of the heavy expense which must of necessity be incurred. The present Siberian road is a single track affair and totally inadequate to take care of the traffic over its branches.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 10.—The newspaper Birgeva Viedomosti reports that in the fighting to the south of Mukden, January 30, the Russians lost 30 officers and 11,642 men were killed and wounded.

Explosion and Fire.

New York Feb. 10.—An explosion and resultant fire in the Central Union Gas Company's plant, at Locust avenue and 139th street, this morning, for a while threatened the entire section of the city known as Port Morris. The spread of the flames to a number of gas tanks and a naptha tank was narrowly averted. Had these tanks ignited there is no question but that millions of dollars worth of damage would have resulted and perhaps heavy loss of life. Five men were injured, one of them seriously.

Hoch's Confession.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Johann Hoch, brought back a prisoner last night to the scene of the majority of his matrimonial exploits, signalized his return by confessing early this morning that he had married twelve women. He admitted also that the powder found in his room in New York was arsenic, explaining it had been his intention to commit suicide. The police theory that the poison had been used to end the lives of successive Mrs. Hochs, the German vehemently denied.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 10.—There was some disposition to close up accounts because of the impending double holiday and also in anticipation of an unfavorable bank statement tomorrow. The selling pressure, however, was not sufficient to affect prices seriously, and as a rule a strong tone developed in the course of the first hour. The undertone of the market remains distinctly strong and little more than reactions are looked for.

The testimony showed that the man could not have used the pistol on himself. Decision of Corporation Commission.

The Corporation Commission has rendered a decision in the case of the Commonwealth of Virginia against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company. The substance of the decision is that permanent improvements must be made in as short a time as practicable. The commission submits a lengthy opinion, in which it brings out in detail the allegations made against the road by citizens of Alexandria to the effect that the cars of the company, largely used by those residing in Alexandria and doing business in Washington, were overcrowded to the point of discomfort and even danger; that there was a continual disregard of schedules, and that a trip which should be made in thirty minutes often occupied two hours. After stating that these conditions should be remedied and quoting the president's statement to show that there is no lack of funds for the purpose, the commission enters an order to this effect:

First. That the road shall have in operation before May 1, 1905, four new complete motor cars, sufficient to seat fifty-two passengers each, equipped with four modern motors of not less than 50-horse power, with double flooring; that two additional four-motor cars of the same size and character be put in operation not later than August 1, 1905; that two new 50-horse power motors be put in on some of the cars now in service by May 1, 1905

Second. That the company shall, within fifteen days from February 9, 1905, install on six of its motor cars used between Washington and Alexandria proper modern electric heating apparatus.

Third. That the company shall lay a double track from the limits of Alexandria to the approach to the new bridge over the Potomac river, to be completed and in operation not later than August 1, 1905.

Fourth. The commission is of opinion that the company's track, roadway and rolling stock should be put in good physical condition and proper system of inspection maintained.

In conclusion, the commission states that the order in this case will be kept upon the docket of the commission in order that further action may be taken in the matter if necessary. It is further stated "that the commission will make an inspection of the power plant, rolling stock, electrical equipment, and roadbed of the company during the summer of 1905, with a view of ascertaining to what extent the company has complied with this order, and has further put its road in proper condition to meet the requirements of travel during the winter of 1905 and 1906.

The commission, after giving a full and exhaustive history of the electric railway, its capacity, demands upon its transportation facilities, complaints from patrons, &c., rendered its decision. The following is the full text:

The commission, having carefully considered all the evidence and matters adduced upon the hearing in these proceedings, is of opinion, for reasons stated in writing, that it should direct certain specified improvements to be made and rolling stock to be purchased by the defendant company. It is therefore ordered—

First.—That the defendant, the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, shall purchase, and have delivered to it, and put in operation on its line before the first day of May, 1905, four new complete motor-cars, sufficient to seat fifty-two passengers each, equipped with four modern motors of not less than fifty horse-power, with double flooring; that two additional four motor cars of the same size and character be at once ordered and purchased by the defendant company, to be delivered to it and put in operation on its line not later than August first, 1905; that two new fifty horse-power motors be ordered and purchased, if not already ordered and purchased by the defendant company, which shall be put in on some of the cars now in service on its line not later than the first day of May, 1905.

Second.—That the said defendant company shall, within fifteen days from this date, viz. the 9th day of February, 1905, install on six of its motor-cars used in regular passenger service between Alexandria and Washington, proper modern electric heating apparatus of the character mentioned in the testimony as being placed on the sides of the cars, said heaters being arranged to take not less than twelve amperes of current at five hundred volts; and shall, with reasonable promptness and dispatch, order, purchase and install on all its other cars, motors and trailers, used in its passenger service, in the winter season, like modern electric heaters to be similarly placed.

Third.—That the said company shall lay complete, and operate a double track from the limits of the city of Alexandria to the beginning of the approach to the new bridge over the Potomac river, said double track to be completed and put in operation not later than the first day of August, 1905; and shall complete and put in operation the double track over the approaches and to the south end of said new river bridge with reasonable promptness and despatch, circumstances and conditions considered.

Fourth.—That the said company shall not run a less number of trains or cars than now provided for in its published schedules, such additional trains or cars to be put on as may, from time to time, be necessary to adequately and properly accomodate the passenger traffic between Washington and Alexandria, or as may be hereafter directed by the Commission to be operated.

Fifth.—It is the opinion of the Commission that the track, road-bed and rolling stock of the defendant company should be put in good physical condition, and a proper system of inspection of these properties of the road be inaugurated and maintained.

The foregoing requirements are made as being at this time reasonable and expedient in order to promote the security and accomodation of the public, and the said foregoing requirements must be complied with in accordance with the provisions of section twenty of an act entitled "An act to put into effective operation the provisions of the Constitution relating to the creation, appointment and organization of the State Corporation Commission," etc., approved April 15th, 1903.

This order is now entered by the Commission in order that the repairs and additions, deemed by the Commission at once necessary, should be made within a reasonable time; but it is ordered that these proceedings be kept upon the docket of the Commission, in order that, upon the hearing and testimony already had, further action may be taken should the Commission deem it necessary. And with that end in view, it is now stated of record that the Commission will make an inspection of the power-plant, rolling stock, electrical equipment and road-bed of the defendant railway company during the summer of 1905, with a view of ascertaining to what extent the defendant company has complied with this order and has further put its road in proper condition to meet the requirements of travel during the winter season of 1905-1906.

It is further ordered that a certified copy of this order be forthwith transmitted to the defendant railway company.

Anniversary Social.

The third anniversary of the Alexandria Lodge of Elks was celebrated last night in a manner which reflected the highest credit and commendation not only upon the lodge, but the committee who had charge of the entertainment. It was an occasion that will be indelibly stamped upon the memories of all present—a commingling of genial souls and happy greetings. The guests and members assembled in the meeting room, and upon being called to order by Exalted Ruler Carlin, were treated to a well chosen and timely history of the Alexandria Lodge of Elks. At the conclusion of Mr. Carlin's remarks, the assemblage, led by Congressman Claude A. Swanson and Mayor F. J. Paff, proceeded to the social session room where an inviting and plentiful repast had been spread. Upon being seated, the guests and members proceeded to do justice to the cravings of the inner man from the tempting spread before them, which had been prepared by the caterers, Messrs. Rammel Brothers. The following was the menu:

Celery, Cherrystone oysters raw, smoked tongue, Oliver ham, provencale, chicken a la Normande, shrimps in mayonnaise, potato remonlade, A. Amontillado's dry, pickled onions, queen olives, gherkins, cold slaw, chow chow, Waldorf relish, Maryland biscuit, Choice and El Principe de Gales cigars, Tivoli Hofbran.

After all had heartily enjoyed the feast, Exalted Ruler Carlin arose and stated that the gathering was commemorative of the celebration of the third anniversary of the institution of the Benevolent Order of Elks in the city of Alexandria. The order, the speaker added numbered on its rolls men that are leaders in every call of life in our city. Hence it was that Alexandria can justly feel proud of a lodge that can present such a creditable roster.

Past Grand Exalted Ruler Brill was then introduced and gave a history of the lodge from its inception. Mr. Brill in an interesting discourse described the many virtues of Elkdom, and the multifold benefits to be derived from the order. The speaker reviewed the work done by Alexandria Lodge in a most interesting and instructive manner.

The other speakers of the evening were Hon. Claude A. Swanson, Mayor F. J. Paff, Messrs. James R. Caton, Edmund Burke, Charles Bendheim and J. A. Burkhart.

During the evening vocal solos were sung by Mr. J. Harris Franklin and Mr. Richard Wirt, while instrumental music was rendered by the Alexandria Ideal Musical Club and an orchestra.

Funeral Services.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha E. Jenkins took place this afternoon from the residence, northeast corner of King and Fairfax streets. The services were conducted by Rev. E. V. Regester, of Baltimore. The pallbearers were Messrs. George, Edward and Charles Stout, Frank and H. B. Steiner and Malcolm M. Laws—all grandsons of the deceased. A number of friends and acquaintances were in attendance.

The funeral of the late Joseph Roberts took place from the residence, 302 north Royal street, this afternoon. The Eagles, of which the deceased was a member, were in attendance, as were also other friends and acquaintances. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Jeffers.

Orders from the Wardens.

The Board of Fire Wardens have posted the following in the engine houses of this city:

"The engineers being in charge of houses and apparatus, are required to preserve order and keep all objectionable persons from houses; also to allow none but members of companies to sleep at houses; also that the houses must be closed at a seasonable hour at night. In the absence of the engineer the drivers of engines become responsible for conduct, etc., around the houses, and in the absence or both engineers and drivers the drivers of wagons become responsible."

Republican Committee.

Mr. H. P. Dodge, of Manassas, has called a meeting of the republican Congressional committee of the Eighth district, to be held in the rooms of the Business Men's League, in this city, on Monday afternoon next, at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a State committeeman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Postmaster Joseph L. Crapper, of this city. It is generally understood that Mr. W. B. King, of Falls Church, will be chosen committeeman, as he has no opposition for this position.

Deaths.

Mrs. Jennie M. R. Campbell, wife of Mr. Edgar Campbell, died at her home on south Fayette street, this morning. The deceased leaves one child. She had been a sufferer for a long time from an incurable malady.

Agnes Gilbert, an aged colored woman, and a native of this city, died in Philadelphia Wednesday. Her remains were brought here and the funeral took place from Demaine & Son's undertaking parlors this afternoon.

Opera House.

The J. L. Tempest Dramatic Company will present "The Vagabond's Wife" at the Opera House next Monday night. This company has met with great success wherever it has appeared, the newspapers of different cities being profuse in their praises of the talent displayed.

A Rumor.

A report is in circulation on the streets today to the effect that two of the officers stationed at Fort Hunt, in Fairfax county, below this city, have gotten into trouble over their accounts and that an investigation is being made.

Police Court.

[Justice E. S. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Mr. Laurence Stabler, who has been confined to his home for the past week with a severe cold, is able to be out.

Mr. G. L. Boothe has gone to Richmond and Newport News on legal business.

Charges Against Policemen.

On information furnished by a citizen, Chief Webster, of the police force, has preferred charges against Officers Ferguson and Knight who, it is alleged, were seen to take a drink of liquor in a saloon recently while on duty. The charges have been presented to the Mayor, who will investigate them at an early date.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tonight.

A southbound passenger train of the Washington Southern Railway ran off the track near the intersection of Duke and Fayette streets this morning and delayed traffic for some time.

Officers Smith and Ferguson have found a lot of chewing and smoking tobacco which, there is every reason to believe, was stolen. The tobacco is at the station house awaiting identification by its owners.

Daniel W. Jenkins was arrested in this city this afternoon by Officers Allen and Bettis charged with stealing a cow in Charles county, Md. Jenkins was later turned over to the deputy sheriff of Charles county.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

There was a great deal of gossip current in Wall street, New York, this morning about a prominent stock operator, who, for several years past, has made and lost money in half-million lots and sometimes a great deal more. It is said his health has given way and his accounts are being fixed up by friends.

Joseph Jenkins, a negro, narrowly escaped lynching by a mixed mob of whites and blacks at the outskirts of Birmingham, Ala., today. Jenkins wrote an obscene note to Widow Lavender, the keeper of a soda water stand, and came to the stand for his answer. Mrs. Lavender, cowered the negro with a pistol and held him until a number of men arrived. The mob was about to string the negro up, with the blacks leading spirits in the bee, when officers arrived and took the prisoner into custody.

The appellate division of the New York Supreme Court today, by a majority of four to one, reversed the order of Justice Truax, appointing a receiver for Hannah Elias, the negress whom John R. Platt is suing to recover money given her, and granting an injunction restraining her from disposing of the $685,000 that Platt gave her. The court says the receivership was unauthorized. This leaves Hannah Elias in full possession of all the money until the adjustment is rendered in the main suit.

Because her husband chided her for not preparing his breakfast, Mrs. George W. Herring secured a pistol this morning and shot him dead at Wellston Mines, Ala.

Night School.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Repeated effort on the part of the Alison Woman's Christian Temperance Union to secure desirable quarters for the night school resulted only in disappointment until our distress reached the ears of Father Cutler, of St. Mary's Catholic Church, who has kindly offered to us the use of the parish school building, corner of Royal and Wolfe streets, where the school will be opened tonight at 7:30, and Tuesday and Friday nights of each week until June 1, 1905.

Nothing daunted by adverse circumstances, the school opened Tuesday evening last in a private residence, eight boys enrolling. Since that date many others have indicated a desire to attend.

In this connection I desire to state that the night school is designed to give a practical education to boys who must work during the day; therefore, boys who are now attending day schools are denied enrollment.

It has been rumored that any boy entering the school will be required to sign a pledge of total abstinence. Such report is wholly unfounded. No pupil will be urged, or even asked, to sign a pledge of any nature, such moral obligation resting solely with the individual and the Almighty.

The scope of moral and religious teaching will be confined to truthfulness, honesty and sobriety, but creed and dogma shall be regarded as the prerogatives of Church and Sunday schools.

It is hoped that the aims and purposes of the night school are now thoroughly understood, and that this much needed institution shall be accorded the support it deserves. Very respectfully,

MRS. LELIA M. TINSLEY,
President.

A Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

Mrs. Sara Wilson

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with womb trouble, which caused me severe pain extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor failed to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid uterine tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain; and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 3d Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, leucorrhœa, flooding, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, some derangement of the uterus or ovarian trouble. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Accused Acquitted.

Pittsburg, Feb. 10.—Charged by two young society women of the East End with assault and battery, with intent to kiss, a Pittsburg contractor was Wednesday acquitted of the charge, but ordered to pay a third of the costs of the trial, the fair plaintiffs to bear the balance. "Ollie" Reagan was accused of striking Miss Blanche Charles and Miss Annie M. Winter at Miss Winter's home last November. Miss Charles swore that Reagan attempted to kiss her, and she had resented the action. Reagan became angry, and, in the quarrel that followed, Miss Charles was knocked to the floor and painfully injured. Miss Winter, who came to her assistance, was also thrown down and severely handled. Miss Charles did not deny being kissed in the scuffle. Reagan denied the intent to injure, saying he was merely joking and teasing them. He averred that he had kissed Miss Winter before that occasion.

Death of Boxing Instructor.

New York, Feb. 10.—Benjamin Van Slyke, the boxing instructor, died Wednesday. He was 87 years old. He had chewed tobacco since he was 9 years old. At 10 he smoked a pipe. He had been a steady drinker of milk and whisky since he was a boy. He has taught 5,000 men how to box. "Old Ben Van Slyke," as he was familiarly known, had been an instructor in boxing on Broadway for fifty years. His pupils included bankers, brokers, actors and professional men, and at one time his assistant was Mike Donovan, now instructor to President Roosevelt. Van Slyke was hale and hearty up to within a few weeks of his death. "Professor" Van Slyke met and had the personal friendship of the greatest prize-fighting champions.

Pauper Heir.

Franklin, Pa., Feb. 10.—A scar on the right wrist, the result of a wound received in a cavalry charge in the Franco-Prussian war, was the principal means of establishing the identity of John Demorin, a native of France, who died a pauper in the hospital here last Friday. Demorin, who was 67 years old, came here three weeks ago. He was suffering from exposure and was taken to the hospital. Before he died he gave the matron the name of a friend, who came here yesterday and identified the body through the scar on the wrist. He said Demorin was a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, and was the sole heir of a fortune of $60,000 in France. An effort will be made to find the dead man's relatives, if he has any.

Missing Man.

Lebanon, Pa., Feb. 10.—An additional reward of $100 has been voted by the congregation of Tulpehocken Reformed Church for any information concerning the whereabouts of William P. Welker, one of the twin sons of the Rev. H. J. Welker, pastor of Tulpehocken Church. Young Welker, who was a theological student, disappeared in Philadelphia on December 22 last, and since then not the least clue of him has been found, although an untiring search has been maintained. The family anxiously wait to hear some news of the missing boy, although they fear he is no longer living. The reward for the young man is now $200, Mr. Welker having offered a $100 reward immediately after his son's disappearance.

Big Damages.

Mrs. Sarah S. Williams, wife of George A. Williams, a millionaire wire dealer in New York, yesterday obtained a judgment for $50,000 damages against Miss Susie H. Wright for the alienation of Mr. Williams' affections. Mrs. Williams is 70 years of age, while her husband is five years her senior. Miss Wright is past middle-age and the daughter of a man who was Mr. Williams' lifelong friend. The plaintiff, Mrs. Sarah S. Williams, claims that Miss Susie H. Wright, who has passed three-score, stole her husband's love. At a summer hotel he provided a special table for the spinster, while his wife was compelled to eat at the common board.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when any thing disagrees with her." Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

DISORDERS IN RUSSIA.

The strikers in several of the principa works in St. Petersburg went on strike again yesterday. The military are taking every precaution.

Strikers attacked the workers in the electric station at Sosnovice. Troops fired from the windows of the plant, wounding many people. The situation in St. Petersburg is much disturbed, but the military force is sufficient to awe rioters. Eight battalions of infantry, eight squadrons of cavalry and one regiment of Cossacks are now in the town. At the Coats thread mills and many other establishments at Lodz the strikers were yesterday paid three days' wages as an advance, although it was claimed that nothing was legally due them. The managers of the Heintzel's mill refused to pay anything and the workmen threatened to wreck the place. The military prepared to fire and for a moment the situation was extremely grave, but the managers finally yielded and agreed to pay, providing the men promised to return to work on Monday. Another manager refused payment to the strikers, but at the point of a revolver was compelled to promise payment today.

There were serious disturbances yesterday at Pabianice. The troops fired on the workmen, killing one and wounding two. Pabianice is on the Dobrzynka river, and is the seat of cotton, woolen and wall paper manufacturers.

The majority of millowners, in Lodz, Russia, "paid off" their workmen yesterday. The most remarkable incident of this most remarkable strike is that the masters owed the men nothing, but three days' wages were given as an advance, the strike therefore being kept going with the money of the employers, against whom the strike was ostensibly directed.

Not all the millowners were willing to pay the strikers. At Baron Heintzel's mill a threatening crowd assembled and demanded to see the proprietor. The officer in command of the military ordered them to disperse within 10 minutes, otherwise he would use weapons. When the time expired the crowd refused to move, and the officer ordered his men to load their guns. Women rushed from the crowd and threw back their shawls to expose their breasts to the bullets. A small boy produced a wooden crucifix bearing the words. "This is the only weapon we have."

Just as the soldiers were about to fire Baron Heintzel appeared, and to prevent bloodshed he paid four rubles (about $3) a head.

Terrorism also is at work. M. Stelgert, a millowner employing 600 persons, refused to pay the strikers. Later he was visited by four strangers, who drew revolvers and threatened to kill him if he did not give his word of honor to pay the work people this morning. They warned him if he applied for help to the military he would be a dead man inside of four days. The men were not Lodz workmen, but probably emissaries of the revolutionary committee.
